

Urban shopping is lifted to new heights at The Market at Harbor Heights

Urban shopping featuring the The Market at Harbor Heights on the first level of the Harbor Heights complex.

Retail meets residential at Harbor Heights, one of downtown Norfolk's newest developments. The 13 floors of Harbor Heights is comprised of a mix of urban retail shopping, Class A office space, secured parking and residential accommodations. While all components make Harbor Heights truly unique, what sets this project apart and makes it extraordinary, is the new concept in urban shopping which houses the entire main level of the building.

The Market at Harbor Heights features open-air, off-street shopping opportunities for residents of Harbor Heights, as well as those residing in surrounding properties, and for Norfolk's many professionals as well.

Like vendors and markets in metropolitan cities across the United States, The Market offers specialized products and services for those who shop there. Gourmet wines, foods and cheeses, the finest in cut flowers, fresh greens and arrangements, cut to order meats, poultry and seafood, prepared delicacies and treats, exotic foods and flavors, decadent desserts and first-class, ready-to-eat, serve or enjoy creations prepared by culinarians extraordinaire which are close at hand! This is a shopping mecca for lovers of good taste and fine foods, yet everyday conveniences, sundries and necessities are also available for those who stop in to shop.

Downtown Norfolk is brimming with excitement with the addition of The Market at Harbor Heights, and you will too, once you discover how urban shopping will never be the same!
